

A Cuisinart DCC-1100 Ultimate Coffeemaker Review

When you get up in the morning, there is nothing like a warm cup of coffee. Coffee is the brew that everyone heads for to jump starting their day. Coffee tastes best when it is properly brewed and in order to ensure this you need to have the right coffee maker.

If you want the perfect blend, you would really enjoy the Pink Cuisinart DCC-1100 12-Cup Programmable Coffeemaker.

What makes this coffeemaker so different from so many others? The first aspect is the quality. This is a coffee maker that gives you the best and strongest coffee brews. Enjoy having coffee with your friends, family and even your office colleagues using this excellent coffee maker.

This coffeemaker has an ergonomic handle and a drip less spout. No longer do you have to worry about coffee dripping or losing a grip on the handle. You can also pour out a fresh cup for yourself while it's still brewing.

Now this is not all. As the name suggests, the Pink Cuisinart DCC-1100 12-Cup Programmable Coffeemaker can be programmed. This means you can use its 24-hour programmability feature to set the timer to brew coffee whenever you want, at any time of the day.

It offers four distinct cup settings, so you can pour out only that much as you want and don't have to take more than necessary, when you want a small cup for yourself.

Oops!! The power got cut, when I brewed my coffee you have to do the brewing all over again. You don't have to worry about this with this coffeemaker because it has a 60-second reset feature, which continues the brewing right where it left off when the power went out.

The Pink Cuisinart DCC-1100 12-Cup Programmable Coffeemaker comes in a very distinct pink color. The unique design, lovely shade and optimal ergonomics makes it a piece that you simply must have in your kitchen.

Sit back, relax and have a great time sipping some of the purest coffee blend brews made by the Pink Cuisinart DCC-1100 12-Cup Programmable Coffeemaker. This coffemaker is a thru enrichment to your kitchen and comes with a 3-year warranty.

If you are looking for an interesting present for someone close to you, consider getting them a Pink Cuisinart DCC-1100 12-Cup Programmable Coffeemaker. It will surely surprise them as it will also be very useful for them.
